

Privacy

Southern Insurance Agency, Inc. is committed to protecting your privacy as a website visitor and as our customer. Southern Insurance is the owner of the information that is collected and will not sell, disseminate, disclose, trade, transmit, transfer, share, lease, or rent any personally identifiable information to any third party not specifically authorized by you to receive your information except as we disclose to you in this Privacy policy.

We collect most of the information that we need directly from you. Generally, the application forms and questionnaires that you complete provide us with all of the information that we need to properly evaluate the providing of insurance products and services and to calculate proper pricing. On occasion, we may seek additional information, such as your creditworthiness or credit history, from third party reporting agencies. Any information that we receive from these third parties is kept strictly confidential.

The categories of non-public personal and financial information that we collect may include your name, address, social security or employer identification number, assets, income, date of birth, motor vehicle driving information, and other information that is appropriate or necessary to provide you with the insurance products and services that you request.

We do not disclose any non-public personal or financial information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted or required by law.

Information about you is kept in our records and may be shared with affiliated parties as permitted by law. We refer to and use that information for purposes related to issuing and servicing your insurance policies and administering claims.

We restrict access to non-public information about you to only those employees who need the information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your non-public personal and financial information. The safeguards that we utilize comply with federal and state regulations.
